

Fully funded training is available for Voluntary and Community organisation employees and volunteers

Train to Gain offers:

A free review of your organisation's learning and skills needs

- Grant funding to help develop the leadership and management skills within a business.
- Sourcing of the most appropriate training and potential financial support to some organisations.
- Funding towards level 2 and 3 training qualifications.
- Funding to develop basic literacy and numeracy skills (leading to a nationally recognised qualification).
- Funding towards short courses and accredited training to support organisations through the current economic climate.

Funding may be available for employees and volunteers already holding a Level 2 or 3 qualification to complete another Level 2 or 3 qualification that is relevant to their organisation.

All UK companies including voluntary and community organisations can access the Train to Gain brokerage service. Organisations with less than 50 employees may be eligible to receive a contribution towards wage costs.

Why not contact us?

The Learning Curve has provided training and development to the Voluntary Sector for over 10 years. We offer Learning and Skills Council (LSC) funded learning specialising in work force development and training, including National Vocational Qualifications (NVQs) in the following subject areas:

- Management (including Team Leading qualification at Level 2)
- Advice & Guidance
- Customer Services
- Training & Development
- Business Administration
- ITQ (The new qualification for IT users)

We are also able to support staff and volunteers who may wish to brush up on literacy & numeracy or their spoken English. This can be achieved through a range of bespoke courses, delivered in the workplace and can lead to a nationally recognised qualification.

Whatever your training requirements The Learning Curve aims to support Voluntary Sector organisations every step of the way.

Employers eligibility requirements:

Must be 19+, an EU resident for the last 3 years, in full or part time employment or a volunteer.
