

Comprehensive database of local courses and free resources to support learning in the Voluntary and Community Sector

www.ladder4learning.org.uk, a service delivered by the Learning Curve, provides a dedicated helpline and comprehensive website for all your training and development needs within the South West and South East regions. ladder4learning offers free, impartial, practical advice and information tailored specifically for the Voluntary and Community and Social Enterprise Sector.

What can ladder4learning offer you and your organisation?

- A detailed database of relevant, current courses.
- Research carried out on your behalf by qualified advisors.
- Advice on how to choose the right course.
- Information on different methods of learning.
- The opportunity to join message boards for networking and information sharing.
- Free of charge downloadable tools and resources.
- Advice, support and information about training needs skills audits.
- Links to other useful and relevant sites.
- Staff attendance and display material at your workshops and events within the regions.
- Sign up to free alerts and up to date information and newsletters.

If you are a training provider please sign up on the website and upload your course details for free.

If you would like further information please contact the team on the following number/email.

HELPLINE: 01225 792505

available 10.00 am - 3.00 pm Monday to Friday

email: ladder4learning@learningcurve.org.uk

www.ladder4learning.org.uk